

GUIDELINES FOR JUDGING OF 4-H CLOTHING EXHIBITS

DUE JULY 20th or earlier:

Please send the following forms to Pam at pamsimo@ksu.edu or take them to the Extension Office:

- Completed 2023 Fashion Revue Script with all questions answered including your script
- For Beginners: completed “Simplified Cost per Buymanship Outfit” (Buymanship)
- For Beginners: completed “Simplified Cost per Self-Constructed Outfit” (Construction)
- For Juniors, Intermediates, and Seniors, completed “Cost per Wear Form”
- Find all forms at: <https://bit.ly/DCFairForms>
- Enter exhibits in the FairEntry System at <http://decatourcountyfair.fairentry.com> using your 4HOnline account by July 19th

9:00 a.m. - JULY 25th:

- Clothing Judging at the Sunflower Recreation Center/Golden Age Center
- Bring ALL garments and articles for judging. Copies of your submitted forms will be available for judging.

6:00 p.m. - JULY 25th:

- Public Fashion Revue at the Sunflower Recreation Center
- Each 4-Her will be expected to exhibit their articles and garments in the Public Fashion Revue. Those who do not participate will forfeit ribbon premiums and special awards.
- Clothing Construction may model up to 2 outfits.
- Girls/Boys Buymanship may model up to 2 outfits.
- Wearable Fiber Arts may model up to 2 outfits.
- Those enrolled in multiple project areas may model up to 6 total outfits.
- Judge’s comments will be handed out after the Public Fashion Revue. Grand Champion and Reserve Champion winners will be announced.
- Plan to arrive about 15 minutes early dressed in the outfit you will model first with start time at 6 p.m.
- After the Fashion Revue, all participants will parade to the Good Samaritan Center to show off your talents and modeling skills to the residents.

*At the Public Fashion Revue, all constructed garments will be modeled first. If you have a purple ribbon on a constructed garment, do not change until after awards are given. We want all purple ribbon winners in their outfit when awards are announced. This policy also applies to purchased garments.

AUGUST 1st:

- Decatur County Fair Exhibits
- Bring your clothing articles to the Exhibit Building for display between 9 a.m. and noon.

Please ask if you have any questions. We are excited to see your accomplishments!
