“I Dare You” Award

The American Youth Foundation, the award sponsor, challenges young adults to achieve their personal best, live balanced lives and lead through service to others. Youth who strive to make a positive difference in school, church and their communities.

List your leadership and participation in the following five areas: School, 4-H, Community Service, other organizations and church.

You do not have to use all areas: the amount of space you use for each category is up to you.
Use only the space below.

I have personally prepared this and believe it to be correct.
